NOTICE OF ROBERT ALLEN STANFORD'S WRITTEN OBJECTION TO PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
BETWEEN CERTAIN PARTIES IN THE "ROTSTAIN LITIGATION"
PROCEEDING, AND REQUEST TO APPEAR, NOW PENDING IN THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS, DALLAS DIVISION

TO: HONORABLE KENNETH M. HOYT, U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS, HOUSTON DIVISION

Robert Allen Stanford, proceeding pro se, hereby submits Notice of the Written Objection he has filed in the 'main action' case, Securities and Exchange Commission v. Stanford International Bank, Ltd., Case No. 3:09-cv-00298-N (N.D. Tex.), where the Proposed Settlement Agreement between certain of the parties in the 'Rotstain Litigation' is now pending in the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, before Chief U.S. District Judge David C. Godbey.
(Doc. 3225)

In this Written Objection Mr. Stanford provides the Dallas District Court with reasoning, of a jurisdictional nature, why the Proposed Settlement Agreement between certain of the parties in the "Rotstain Litigation" should be regarded as baseless and moot, and why it and all other Stanford-related litigation should be summarily dismissed with prejudice.

Specifically, while Mr. Stanford provides the Dallas District Court with numerous legal reasons to dismiss the 'main action' case, in its entirety, in the instant Settlement Agreement proceeding he focuses Judge Godbey's attention on the unlawful ('ultra vires') activity of the Receiver, Ralph S. Janvey; the legally unauthorized actions taken by him on February 17, 2009, that served to both confirm the SEC's 'improper forum manipulation', and divested the Dallas District Court of jurisdiction over the 'main action' case, and all other Stanford-related litigation flowing from that case, from February 17, 2009 forward, including the 'Rotstain Litigation'.

Ralph S. Janvey, and his (Baker Botts) counsel, Kevin M. Sadler, are currently intervenor/parties in the 'Rotstain Litigation' on behalf of the Official Stanford Investors Committee (OSIC).

In conjunction with his Written Objection, Mr. Stanford also requests a Court Order permitting him to appear and give voice to his objections at the Final Approval Hearing, scheduled for May 3, 2023, via the electronic audio/video connection which is available at his place of confinement.
